Create a Memo for your software/organization as per the discussed template in the lecture. You have to write a group memo for your team members with the help of domain-related issues. The manager of that group collates and puts all these memos at the end of the project report.